APPELLANT’S RESPONSE TO THE COURT’S ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
WHY THE APPELLANT WAS LATE TO RESPOND TO THE CWT PARTY’S
MOTION TO STRIKE

COMES NOW the Appellant, Dennis M. Danzik, by counsel, Ken McCartney of The Law Offices of Ken McCartney, P.C. and responds to this court’s Order to Show Cause why a response to the CWT Parties Motion to Strike was late filed, offers the following.

1. The Appellant's counsel is probably not the only one confused by the filings in this case.
2. As an electronic filer, Appellant's counsel received a Motion to Strike with the Bankruptcy Court's heading in the caption filed 4/29/2019 at 15:21:23.
3. Counsel received a second copy of the Motion to Strike, again with the Bankruptcy Court's heading in the caption that was errantly considered by counsel as merely a duplicate copying of the same filing. It was identical with the first copy received. On closer review the second copy was file stamped in the District Court on 4/19/2019.
4. On May 7th, 2019 Counsel for the Appellant received an Order from the Bankruptcy Court setting the only motion there is for hearing on May 15th, 2019 and requiring a response to the Motion, May 13, 2019. Counsel's office calendared this response date believing this to be the only date requiring a response be filed, and timely filed a response in the Bankruptcy Court.
5. It certainly did not occur to counsel that there was a conflicting response deadline imposed by the District Court filing of an identical pleading.
6. Having received the Order to Show Cause Counsel also filed the response in the District Court with this response to the Order to Show Cause.

WHEREFORE the Appellant prays cause be shown, and the parties and the courts get together and decide where the motion should be heard one time and the subject closed.

Done this 14th day of May, 2019.

Respectfully submitted
For the Appellant

/s/ Ken McCartney
